Taking in all the situation of our section, I am of the opinion that invite the old visitor to allow we are in a better condition than we have been for years. The far- ence. mers have good crops of corn, tobacco and wheat, and the prices are good, so the country has plenty to eat, plenty to wear and plenty to do; so the question is, will we do with our means what duty demands. If we do these things we may expect prosperity in the future and happiness to our children's children, if not, we need not be surprised if mildew and decay settle upon us and ours. Our country is comparatively healthy.

Louisville, Ky. in c.—Dear Sir: We the undersigned, inving suffered for several months from the poisonous effects of malaria, chilling every few days, and having tried various so-salled remedies without relief, were induced to buy a box of your celebrated Fever and Ague Pills. We took them according to directions, and having been cured by the use of these Pills, we do not besitate to recommend them as a sure and permanent cure for Chills and other Maharial Diseases. We believe that they will care any case of Chills that can be found, and advise all who are suffering in this way to buy a box of Bishop a Fever and Agne Pills at once. Try them for they w'll care you sound and well, and thus save you money, time and much of the meanest suffering that fails to human beings. Hopling that your Pills may have the large sale that their merits deserve, we are, most respectfully and truly,
